

Task Name: Develop Login Module

Description:

Design and implement a secure login module with username/email and password authentication, including form validation and basic error handling. Use frontend (React.js) and backend (Node.js with Express).